This was the statement made by Thomas Weir, the prominent mining operator, when asked his attitude on the issuance of $600,000 worth of bonds by Salt Lake City in order to complete and carry out necessary improvements to

> Weir explained that the thing which the city proposed to do was merely what mining corporations, railroads, and, in fact, every business man did in order to enlarge the business or to obtain funds with which to carry out any large project. 'The benefits gained from the improvements are thus gained at once,' said Mr. Weir, 'mstead of having to wait until the profits of the business will once more constitutions. the business will give money enough

> "When it is desired to extend or increase the equipment of a railrond or to raise money to develop a mine, the first thing done is to bond the company to order to raise money with which to do this. This extends the expense over a term of years and permits the enjoyment and use of the enlarged interests through all that time, at the same time as the increased profits are being gained. The stockholders are not as sessed in order to enlarge the system of a railroad; bonds are sold and there follows an increased dividend from the enlargement of the system which not only pays the interest on the bonds, but pays interest on the increased in

Improvements Must Be Made.

This is the situation here in Sait ke Cicy. The improvements are of sort which most be made and even it were feasible to increase the taxation sufficiently at the present time to carry out some of the improvements desired it would take so long a time to do all of the work that we would lose much of the benefits which would result from the improvement while we were waiting for the accumulation of were waiting for the accumulation of money enough to enable the city to complete the improvements.

'In fact, with me the propositiou comes to this: If the improvements are not worth the carrying of a bond issue they should not be made at all, whether by means of money raised by taxation or otherwise. I understand that the improvements are absolutely necessary if the city is to increase in population as it should and is to become the sort of city that it should be. To fail to carry out the improvements means failure to progress, and I am sure that no one wishes such a thing if the money must be raised at all, and I think that it should be raised, a bond issue seems to be one of the oest means of securing it.''

CONFESSES TO MURDER: MAY BE ONLY INSANE

MISSOULA, Mont. July 24—A special to the Missoulish from Stevensyille says: William Parsons created a sensation here today by confessing that he had murdered a main at Camp Cook, S. D., six years ago. Parsons made his confession to Deputy Sheriff Daugherty. No one had ever suspected him of the crime and the confession was entirely voluntary. Parsons said that his real name was Clem Hanson. He has a wife and a small son in this city. He claimed that he shot the man through the head, but was rather hazy in his description of the crime and the circumstances that led up to it. It is thought that Parsons, or Hanson, is crazy. He was locked up pending an investigation. MISSOULA, Mont., July 24 -- A special

SOCIALIST ELEMENT OF FEDERATION IS DEFEATED

DENVER, July 24.—The convention of the Western Federation of Miners this afternoon indersed the editorial policy which has been followed in the management of the Miners' Magazine.

This action was taken after a spirited debate, during which Editor O'Neill was severely roasted for supporting socialism. The convention amended the constitution so as to compel miners to belong to the local having jurisdiction over the mine in which they are working. It also refused to appropriate money for the executive board to use in sending out "political literature". This is looked upon as a defeat of the Socialist element, and is the first serious setback that wing of the organization has ever received in a Western Federation of Miners' convention.

The federation adopted the working agreement with the United Mine Workers of America, substantially as recommended vesterday by the committee appointed to consider this question. This action was strongly urged by President Charles H. Moyer.

The agreement as adopted provides that the federation shall grant no more charters to coal miners already organized shall be maintained and organizers shall be continued in camps where such locals exist, and that all questions of jurisdiction that may arise between the two organizations shall be referred to the executive boards of the organizations for settlement.

WILL TRY NEW PLAN TO SUBDUE YAQUIS

TUCSON. Ariz. July 24.—it was learned from the secretary to Gov. Cubillas of Sonora today that after three years of endeaver to subdue the Yaquis, the Government of Mexico has turned the situation over to the Sonora state authorities. During this period a large number of Yaquis and their families were deported to Yucatan, but it is believed that the main deportations have been of peaceful Indians instead of renegades.

Cubillas has formulated his plans. The most important move will be to station troops in every mining camp and pueblo in the affected districts, and also enlist vaquetos to act as guides and informants. The force of rurales will also be increased. These plans will permit of assembling of a considerable body of troops on zhori notice in almost any locality.

MORE SENSATIONS FOR SECOND TERM IN GOULD SCANDAL

man Held on Conspiracy Charge Is Announced.

DETAILS OF STATEMENT ARE NOT MADE PUBLIC

Policies Inaugurated by Him Lawyers for Defense Intend to Show Intent to Sell Evidence Against Gould.

> NEW YORK, July 24 .- With Frank nearly four hours he sat beside his counsel listening to the remarkable testimony that was given.

There were three sensational develop ments in the case. The first came when Lawyer Carpol, who appears for Miss Julia Fleming, appounced that his client had made a confession.

Second Sensation.

The second came when the lawyers for the defense stated that they intend to show that Miss Mabel MacCausland. to show that Miss Mabel MacCausland, the milliner's apprentice, who accuses the prisoners of having bartered with her to sign an affidavit against Mr. Gould, had gone to Mrs. Ben Teal with a story that she had evidence against Mr. Gould which she wanted to sell to Mrs. Gould's lawyers, and she thought Mrs. Teal would tell her who to go to. The other sensation was the aunouncement that Miss Fleming, who is still a prisoner in the Tombs, is to be married tomorrow.

tomorrow. Mrs. Ben Teal, wife of one of the most prominent theatrical managers in America and the principal figure in the case, was accompanied to court by her case, was accompanied to court by her husband and two women friends. She was stunningly gowned and seemed to bear up bravely while Miss MacCausland was telling her story of the alleged conspiracy. But by the time the hearing was adjourned for the day she was on the verge of collapse.

Confession Announced.

At the opening of the hearing Assistant District Attorney Harr informed the court of Miss Fleming's confession. He said that he had also obtained a statement from Miss Blanche Hale, a young woman who will later figure in the case, corroborating Miss MacCausland's affidavit. He said that the statements of Miss Fleming and Miss Hale would not be used at the present hearing, as he considers that enough evidence to warrant the holding of the prisoners for trial.

After counsel for the defendants had tried to have their cases dismissed and had failed. Miss MacCausland was put on the stand. She said she had first been called to Mrs. Teal's apartments on a matter of business on July 13, but that the Gould case was not discussed until her next visit on July 16, when she met Miss Julia Fleming. It was on this occasion, she claimed, that Mrs. Teal asked her if she needed any money and when she said she did, the witness stated that the alleged plot to manufacture evidence against Mr. Gould was unfolded to her.

Sticks to Her Story.

The witness told the same story she told to the district attorney just previous to the arrest of Mrs. Teal, Miss Fleming and Detective Mousely.

The witness swore that she was to get $600 for signing the paper. Then as a climax to the girl's testimony, the prosecutor asked whether all that was to be in the affidavit was true or false. and she dramatically exclaimed, "false." Upon the cross-examination of the witness the line of defense that will be adopted for Mrs. Teal and Mousely was made known. Lawyer Blumenthal said that he could show that Miss MacCausland went to Mrs. Teal with a story that she could aid Mrs. Gould in her divorce suit and asked Mrs. Teal for advice in the matter. An adjournment was taken until day, when the cross-examination of Miss MacCausland will be continued.

TUCSON, Ariz., July 24.—In a desperate battle between Mexican troops and Papago Indians, last Tuesday, at the imaculada ranch, near Cetro mining camp, in the Altar district of Sonora, nineteen Indians and two soldiers were killed and two soldiers were wounded.

The encounter resulted from an attempt to return the Indians to their reservation. The Papagos are usually peaceful, but many complaints of depredations upon ranches by this band caused the government on two previous occasions to send many complaints of depredations upon ranches by this band caused the government on two previous eccasions to send troops to subdue them. The Indians fled to the mountains both times.

The present expedition under Captain Baron, with sixty soldiers, surprised an Indian village. The soldiers found no one in camp but two boys, as the balance of the population was gathering cactus fruit in the hills. The soldiers set five to the houses and the Indians rustled to the rescue of their homes.

Socing the troops, they took refuge behind nearby rocks and opened fire. Baron ordered the bugler to sound the retreat. The troops retired and the Indians pursued, thinking they had routed the soldiers. The latter however, soon balted and opened fire, killing nineteen of the hostiles and wounding many.

The Indians fled, taking their wounded with them. Among the killed are Chief Dolores and his son. These two are said to have been the chief trouble makers. The wounded soldiers were taken to Hermosillo.

The scene of the encounter is near the international line about eighty miles from Santa Ana station, on the Sonora railroad. This is the first encounter between the Papagos and troops.
